

Professor Blue

The Jagged Stone

Playing pantomime
In dark and velvet heat
The villain that the dame betrayed
Committing to defeat

Never look behind you
Pleading to ignore
Your cold steel heart confined you
To always wanting more

Rolling ocean
Time and tide alone
Help me soothe you
Smooth the jagged stone

If it's hot, it's really not
The contract is the game
Shunning me your pedigree
The mass deleted shame

Rolling ocean
Time and tide alone
Help me soothe you
Smooth the jagged stone

Driving west from Sevenstones
The rushing window cracks
Rain is streaming, head is screaming
To never coming back
